De Rossi hits out at media Daniele De Rossi hits out at Italian media following confirmation he will be staying with Roma after impressing boss Zdenek Zeman on Friday, Published 23 March 2012 The 26-year-old full-back, whose contract is due to expire in June, was left out of the squad and substituted in the 3-0 win over Bari after being offered a new one-year deal earlier in the week. But Zeman held his regular pre-match press conference to quash rumours De Rossi had been sold to Inter Milan and said he is not concerned about the way he has been portrayed in the media. "I am not concerned about Daniele," he said. "I am sorry for him, but I do not worry about him. I do not worry about him. I can give you a lot of information about Daniele, but I do not worry about him." While De Rossi's future has been much debated in Italy, with reports he is open to a move away from the Giallorossi, Zeman has remained staunch in his support. De Rossi's future is one of many on the minds of Roma fans this week, with the title-challenging Champions League semi-final now set to be played at 82157476af
